

THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE'S WELCOME MESSAGE

We welcome you to the website of the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Zambia to the United Nations. Zambia joined the United Nations on 1st December 1964 after gaining its independence on 24th October the same year.

Since then, Zambia has and continues to be an active member of the UN. Zambia plays a critical role in promoting international peace and security, human rights, gender equality and democracy, the rule of law, good governance, fight against terrorism and a combating climate change, social and economic development, among other things.

development, among other things.

We hope you find the website useful and inspirational.

Ambassador Dr. Mwaba P. Kasese-Bota